

The Institute for Women's Studies at the University of Georgia invites you to the

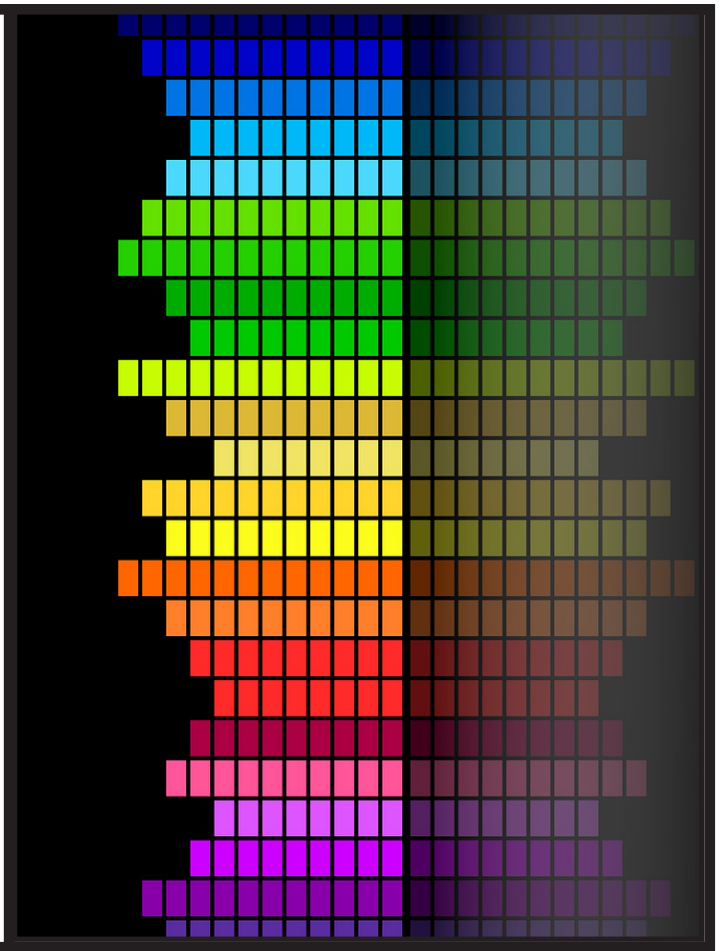

24th Annual Andrea Carson Coley Lecture

Friday, April 20, 2018

12:30 p.m.

M. Smith Griffith Auditorium,
Georgia Museum of Art

A reception honoring the Coley family will precede the lecture at 11:30 a.m.

The Institute for Women's Studies at the University of Georgia invites you to the

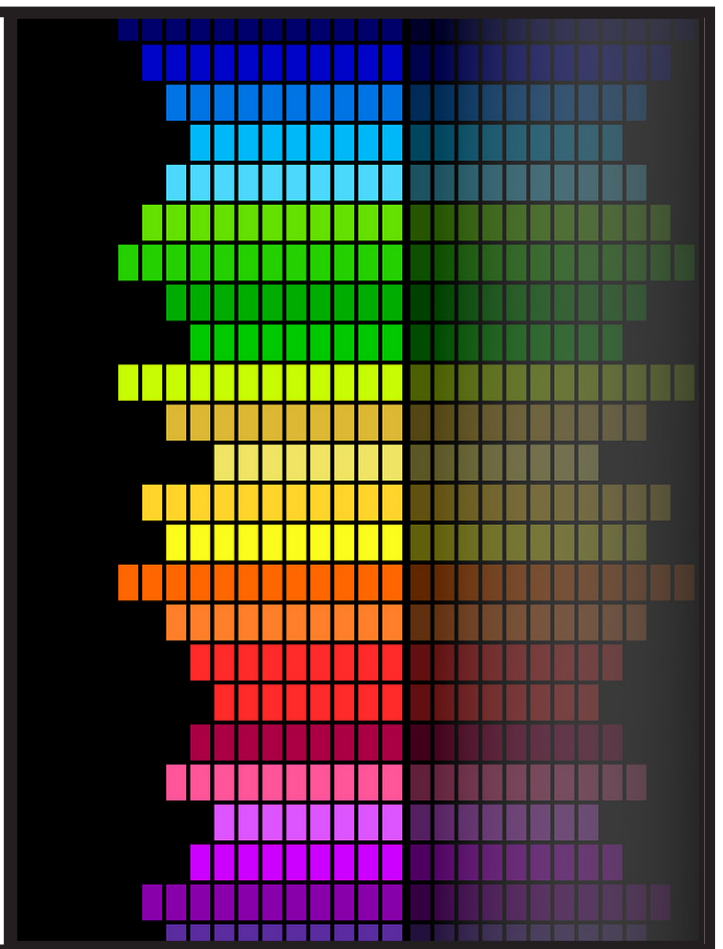

24th Annual Andrea Carson Coley Lecture

Friday, April 20, 2018

12:30 p.m.

M. Smith Griffith Auditorium,
Georgia Museum of Art

A reception honoring the Coley family will precede the lecture at 11:30 a.m.

Presented by

Dr. Bettina L. Love

Associate Professor of Educational Theory & Practice,
College of Education, University of Georgia

"GET FREE: Creativity, Queer Identity, Hip Hop Civics Ed, Intersectionality, & Black Joy"

When: Friday, April 20, 2018

Reception at 11:30 a.m., Lecture at 12:30 p.m.

Where: M. Smith Griffith Auditorium, GMOA

Co-sponsored by: GMOA and the LGBT Resource Center

Institute for
Women's Studies
Franklin College of Arts and Sciences
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

The Andrea Carson Coley Lecture in Women's Studies was made possible by a generous donation from Andrew and Kathy Coley in memory of their daughter, Andrea Carson Coley (1972-1993), who was a certificate candidate in Women's Studies at UGA. Each year, the Andrea Carson Coley Lecture brings to campus outstanding scholars in the field of LGBT studies.

Presented by

Dr. Bettina L. Love

Associate Professor of Educational Theory & Practice,
College of Education, University of Georgia

"GET FREE: Creativity, Queer Identity, Hip Hop Civics Ed, Intersectionality, & Black Joy"

When: Friday, April 20, 2018

Reception at 11:30 a.m., Lecture at 12:30 p.m.

Where: M. Smith Griffith Auditorium, GMOA

Co-sponsored by: GMOA and the LGBT Resource Center

Institute for
Women's Studies
Franklin College of Arts and Sciences
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

The Andrea Carson Coley Lecture in Women's Studies was made possible by a generous donation from Andrew and Kathy Coley in memory of their daughter, Andrea Carson Coley (1972-1993), who was a certificate candidate in Women's Studies at UGA. Each year, the Andrea Carson Coley Lecture brings to campus outstanding scholars in the field of LGBT studies.